

AND YOU WATCH TV © Robert Leaman Sanders 2018

There's a spirit in your heart, there's a spirit in the way your are
You want to fly like an eagle, and you try, but you don't get far
They put a voice in your head, it says your future's goin' down in flames
The put you in a trance, you're on a couch with GMO in your veins
AND YOU WATCH TV, YEAH, YOU WATCH TV, AND YOU WATCH TV

Where to go, what to do, is it false? Is it true? Who cares?
It's a matrix and you're in it. Why fight it? Who can win it? Who dares?

You switch it on, there's game, and the news is so insane, Holy Cow!

Look another false flag. Get the swat teams quick right now!

AND YOU WATCH TV, YEAH, YOU WATCH TV, AND YOU WATCH TV

Television, television, television, television, you're in prison by decision,

Now the TV watches you # Television, television, television, television, you're in prison by decision, Now the TV watches you # AND YOU

WATCH TV, YEAH, YOU WATCH TV, AND YOU WATCH TV

Transformers, Iron man, Spiderman, and Batman too

Okay, they are cool, but all this time the hero is you

You could be doing greats things to save the world large or small

It doesn't matter how you are or where you are this is your friendly call

AND YOU WATCH TV, YEAH, YOU WATCH TV, AND YOU WATCH TV

Television, television, television, television, you're in prison by decision,

Now the TV watches you # Television, television, television, television, you're in prison by decision, Now the TV watches you # AND YOU

WATCH TV, YEAH, YOU WATCH TV, AND YOU WATCH TV

Look inside a mirror with your own eyes look real deep

It's all about why you're here and how you're choosing life over sleep

Planet Earth has never been in trouble like it is today

We really need you now. Yes, we really want to hear what you say / AND
